PROHIBITION BILL WILL BE KILLED BY GOVERNOR WM. SPRY

Legislature to Adjourn Before 5 P. M. Today and Immediately Thereafter the Governor Will Apply the Ax to the Wootton Measure and Utah Will Remain Wet For at Least Two Years More.

Salt Lake, March 12.—At 3:20 o'clock this afternoon the legislature was preparing to adjourn without any word from the governor, who it is understood, will wait until the session ends, and then attach his veto to the prohibition bill, with a statement that the Funk intransigent liquor bill passed yesterday answers all the purposes of true temperance.

Those close to the governor declare there is no doubt Spry will veto the measure the moment the legislature adjourns.

Adjournment will occur before 5 o'clock this afternoon.

Many of the Republican legislators do not want to be placed in the position of being forced to pass the liquor bill over the Governor's head and they welcome adjournment.

CAN FACTORY MAKING

FIVE DIFFERENT

SIZES OF CANS

Machinery for another line in the can factory on Lincoln avenue and Twenty-first street has arrived and will be installed in the near future. This will make five lines for the making of cans in the large plant which will enable the factory to manufacture five different sizes.

About 125 people are now employed in the factory.

SEEKS TO OBTAIN THE

SUM OF $100 TIED

BY AN ESTATE

Alleging that in October, 1914, before the death of the late John F. Smith, H. D. Brown, her son, sent a money order to Mr. Smith for $100, which was to have been paid to her, but was not, Jane D. Abbott has petitioned the district court to reimburse her for the amount in the settlement of the Smith estate.

The Smith estate is now before the court for settlement. R. A. Moyes, cashier of the Commercial National bank, acting as administrator. Mrs. Abbott states in her petition that Mr. Smith put the money which was sent to her in the bank for safekeeping and that he died before turning it over to her.

OGDEN IS PLACED ON

THE HEALTH MAP OF

UNITED STATES

Ogden has now been placed on the United States "health map," according to an order received by City Health Inspector George Shorten today, from the office of the United States public health service at Washington, D. C.

The order is for the mailing of a weekly municipal health report to the United States surgeon general and this report is to be incorporated in the general weekly report of cities all over the country that is published in pamphlet form by the health service department.

A supply of report cards was received with the order and on them nearly all contagious diseases were named.

MRS. BERTHA ECCLES

FILES A LARGE BOND

In the matter of the estate and guardianship of W. J. Vivian and Homer G. Eccles, minors, the guardian, Bertha Eccles, widow of the late David Eccles, yesterday afternoon filed a bond in the sum of $1,245,000, estimated to be double the amount of the inheritance of the children from their father's estate. The bond was furnished by the Aetna Accident and Liability company.

The estimated value of the Eccles' estate reaches close to $7,000,000, the minors in question being three of the thirty-two or thirty-three heirs. Mrs. Eccles, it is said, is heir to about $2,000,000, the balance to be divided between the other heirs.

JOHN WOODLAND

SUES FOR $62.90

In Judge James A. Howell's division of the district court, hearing of the appeal case of John Woodland against W. B. Wedell was taken up before a jury, the first jury for the month in this division of the district court.

The jury in Judge N. J. Harris' division will not be called to service until March 16.

The suit before Judge Howell was instituted in the municipal court to recover $62.90, alleged to be due for services rendered and a lease on a certain spraying machine. Judgment was given for the amount in favor of the plaintiff and the defendant appealed to the district court.

In his answer and counter claim, the defendant sets up that the plaintiff is indebted to him in the sum of $225.75 on a certain promissory note, uttered in 1908.

The jurors are James J. Roch, William Scowcroft, Richard W. Treseder, John Baird, Dan Farmland, Jr., William R. Lund and W. D. W. Zeller and Ben B. Dye.

Deaths and Funerals

SHEPHERD—Anthony Shepherd died at 1 a. m. today of general debility. Mr. Shepherd was born in Buffalo, New York, April 9, 1843, and was employed nineteen years as foreman in the local Southern Pacific shops. He is survived by a stepson, J. W. Ramey. Remains are at the Larkin chapel pending funeral arrangements.

NOT HISTORICAL. Miss Smith, the teacher, was hearing the history class. The pupils seemed unusually dull on this occasion and in vain did the teacher try to get them to give correct answers.

At last she looked at the child who was her star pupil.

"Now, Elsie," she said, "Mary followed Edward VI, didn't she?"

"Yes, ma'am," replied the little girl. "And now, who followed Mary?"

asked the teacher, hopefully.

All was silent for a moment, then Elsie raised her hand.

"Yes, Elsie," queried the teacher. "Who followed Mary?"

"Her little lamb, teacher," said Elsie, triumphantly.—Houston Post.

ABSORPTION.

"Why do we always bring out a lot of fairy tales at Christmas time?" I'll tell you why. It's because the fairy tale is irresistibly absorbing.

The speaker was Mitchell Kennerly, publisher, according to the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. He went on:

"I gave a little boy a book of fairy tales last Christmas. One evening, after his supper, the little boy began to cry.

"What is the matter with you?" asked his nurse. "What are you crying for?"

"Boo, hoo!" he blubbered. "I ate all my supper while you were reading me one of my fairy tales, and here I didn't know I'd eaten it!"

RECEPTION A PLEASANT ONE.

Last evening at their home at 652 Twenty-first street Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Compton gave a reception to their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Compton who were married Wednesday.

Delicious luncheon was served and the evening pleasantly passed in music and song. The table decorations were carnations. Miss Lillian Busch did the honors at the piano.

The bride was formerly Miss Nellie Varney and many of her friends were at the reception party last evening, all extending congratulations and best wishes to the young people. Those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Compton, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Compton, Martha Compton, Earl Folkman, Lillian Rhodes, Mrs. Phillips, Mrs. James, Pearl James, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Newey, Anna Mourant, Clara Davis, Joseph McLachlan, Lee Treseder, Lloyd Canfield, Leland Williams and Miss Muriel Shontz.

The Home Culture club will meet Thursday, March 12, with Mrs. E. P. Mills, 2813 Madison avenue.

LADIES' LITERARY CLUB.

The Ladies' Literary society will be entertained by Mrs. Joseph Scowcroft.

Saturday News

WRIGHTS'

March Sewing Week
All Day Tomorrow

You'll find crowds of buyers tomorrow taking advantage of March Sewing Week Attractions. All of the splendid offerings in Spring Fabrics which have been enumerated here before will be on sale. This is not a sale of old materials, but an offering from our best stock of spring goods. Special prices are made now to stimulate early sewing. Silks, wool goods and staple cottons will on sale as previously advertised.

Millinery Exhibit

Again Tomorrow

Tomorrow again the special showing of the best styles in Spring Millinery. This department is now resplendent with the best millinery ideas of the great designers of Europe and America. This department is conducted on the same lines as the other departments of the store—that is, the New Policy prices are in effect. There is but one price to all—and that the very lowest price which can be made for the merchandise offered. Special discounts are not given to any one at any time.

Madam Manning's

German Hair Grower

Madam Manning is here again tomorrow demonstrating the German Hair Grower. Her explanation as to why the hair becomes dry and falls out is very reasonable, as is also her explanation as to how it can be made to grow again. The lady certainly speaks with conviction regarding this remedy and she declares that her faith in it has been born of experience, as she has been selling the same preparation for a number of years. Many of the accepted methods of promoting the growth of the hair are disputed by Madam Manning, who seems to have a remarkable understanding on the subject.

Closing Out Soiled

Undermuslins

There are still here several lots of the muslin undergarments which were displayed during the sale and have become soiled or rumpled. These garments are not to be placed back in the regular stocks, but are to be closed out at prices which make them very attractive values.

Nearly all kinds of garments are in the lot and any woman will make them look like new with a little proper laundering. The fact, however, that they are rumpled is our reason for the extremely low prices.

DANCING PARTY.

The Ogden State Mutual Improvement board will give a dancing party in the Eighth ward amusement hall this evening. A number of new dances will be introduced.

ELECTRICAL WORKERS' DANCE.

Quite a number of Ogdenites attended the dancing party given by the Electrical Workers of this city last evening in the Colonial academy. In addition to a program of both old and modern dances, delicious refreshments were served.

LEAVE ON EXTENDED COAST VISIT.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Todd and children, Nona and Harry, have gone to San Francisco to attend the world's exposition. Other points of interest on the coast will be visited and the family will return through Oregon.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

The Historical society will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 with Mrs. George Matson. 600 Twenty-fourth street. Dean Cummings of the University of Utah will speak on "Ethnology of Mexico." Miss Ruby Cook will also be present and will give several readings. This will be an open meeting and members of the society are invited to bring friends.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATED.

Mrs. Henry J. Silverthorn, 924 Twenty-second street, entertained in a delightful manner yesterday afternoon in compliment to Miss Marvel Giles and Mrs. Joseph Giles of Five Points. The event celebrated Miss Giles' birthday anniversary and was an exceptionally pleasant one. The afternoon was spent at social diversion and Mrs. Silverthorn served a most tempting luncheon. The table was made especially attractive with a large vase of white carnations as the centerpiece.

MRS. OWENS ENTERTAINS.

Mrs. C. E. Owens entertained a number of her lady friends Thursday afternoon at her home, 2214 Moffat Lane, in honor of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. C. A. Owens of Tucson, Ariz.

Music, readings and games, furnished the entertainment for the afternoon. Later a delicious luncheon was served. The dining room was artistically decorated in green and

WRIGHTS'

Children's Sewing
Class Tomorrow

Let your little girls join the sewing class which meets in the Art Department tomorrow morning. Last Saturday nearly a hundred girls were here and all received instruction in the use of the needle and in the first steps of embroidery.

Every girl who begins is given a dolly free of charge—and is asked to merely buy the silks or other materials necessary to begin the work.

Many of the girls are now working on better pieces and some are doing remarkable work. Girls up to 10 years meet from 10:30 to 11:30. Those over 10 years are to come at 9:30.

New Shirt Waists

At 98c Tomorrow

There are more of those new shirt waists at 98c for the shoppers who come tomorrow. A big shipment containing twenty-five dozen will be displayed on the tables at this price.

They are all of the new styles—new fabrics—with the latest collars and cuffs—high or low necks, and waists which are not sold usually for less than $1.50. There are all sizes, all fresh, new styles, and many prudent women will buy a supply for summer while the assortment is complete.

See them on the Second Floor tomorrow.

Special Sale of

New Draperies

The Drapery Department in the Basement Store is ready to supply all of your wants in draperies and lace curtains. This department has been recently placed under new management which is striving to attract all housewives to the department by offering some remarkable prices in newest curtain fabrics.

The new curtain scrim—sold by the yard—seem to be the popular thing in curtains this spring. They are shown in a wonderful assortment of patterns.

Plain scrim bodices with printed borders at 9c a yard and up.

Fresh Kid Gloves

at 98c Tomorrow

Tomorrow again we offer fresh Kid Gloves—of this spring's importation—at 98c a pair. These are better gloves than you usually buy at $1.50 for they are from the Perrin factory, for which this store is the exclusive selling agent in Ogden.

These are in most of the wanted shades—a fine, soft, pliable Kid Glove, easily worth $1.50, at 98c.

We are not selling more than two pairs to a customer and will ask that we be allowed to fit them after the sale, as we expect a crowd of buyers.

FOR MRS. J. S. CORLEW.

In honor of Mrs. John S. Corlew, who is to leave Ogden very soon for her home in Florida, a very charming luncheon was given on Monday afternoon at the Weber academy by Mrs. Joel Harris and Mrs. Ralph Roberts. Twenty-five guests were in attendance.

In the center of the long table was an immense bouquet of jonquils. At each end were silver candelabra with yellow candles. The hand painted place cards were decorated with jonquils and at each place was a boutonniere of heliotrope and forget-me-not.

A delicious five-course luncheon was prepared and served by the young ladies of the Domestic Science class of the Academy. The different courses were interspersed by toasts, stories, poems and prophecy.

The toasts were as follows: "Sweetness and Light" and "Lovely Women".....Mrs. Butler

Friendship.....Mrs. Abbott

The Graces of Youth.....Mrs. Barrows

Growing Old Gracefully.....Mrs. Barker

The Hand That Rocks the Cradle.....Mrs. Malsan

Our Friend, the Guest of Honor.....Mrs. McIntosh

A Florida.....Mrs. Roberts

A Prophecy Was Given by.....Mrs. Sheehan

A Story by.....Mrs. Malsan

An Original Poem by.....Mrs. Harris

Voicing the thought of all, a toast was given by Mrs. Corey as follows:

"My dear old friend and neighbor, they say you're going to move away. That you've found another home. And you are going there to stay. We are sorry, Mrs. Corlew, we are sorry, goodness knows, to have you leave our desert. That blossoms as the rose, To leave our little city That's known so far and wide, And the grand old Wasatch That has always been our pride, Then there's our Ogden canyon And the hills that's covered o'er"

WRIGHTS'

New Shoe Items in The Basement Store

Mothers of families should form the habit of looking over the Bargain Tables in the Shoe Basement before deciding on shoes for the little folks. In the Basement Store we place on the tables all of the odds and ends which accumulate in the Shoe Department proper. In addition we buy from the makers short lots which they are willing to close out at lowered prices.

While we take good care that only shoes of good quality are offered in this department, yet there is invariably a saving to those who will look here first.

Showing Ladies' New

Suits, Special $19.75

Don't buy a suit, ladies, until you have seen the good values which are offered here at $19.75. Many of the spring suits which you have seen on the streets and which you have admired have come from this store. For many seasons we have not sold so many suits so early in the season.

Every express brings new additions to this lot of splendid values. By making this low price at the beginning of the season we expect to more than double our output of suits.

A Free Sewing

Machine at $25

No woman who wants a sewing machine should overlook this offer of a high grade Free at $25. This is a special offer for a short time only, and a limited number of the machines are to be offered at this price. No matter what the name or the price, there is not a better sewing machine than the Free. It is full ball bearing, drop head, rotary movement, fast sewing, easy running and is positively guaranteed for life. We agree to refund the full purchase price without question should the machine not be satisfactory after two weeks of use. Have a demonstration tomorrow. Don't buy unless you are convinced.

Ladies' Silk Hose

At 58c Tomorrow

The footwear styles of this spring will require hosiery of many shades—and particularly will silk hose be in demand. We are offering a good silk stocking at 58c, which is worth much more. It is made with the silk boot—that is, pure silk thread to the knee. The foot is of lisle with a linen heel and toe which wears better than silk. The upper part of the leg is of fine lisle with a wider garter top which will not break out when fastened to the hose supporters. All of the spring shades—all sizes—58c.

With scruboak that will always thrive.

Then there's the prickly pear And our famous lake of brine My dear old friend, do you realize What you are going to leave behind?

But the thing that worries us (And that's where comes the rub) That we will miss you everywhere At home and in the club. They say that where you're going The flowers always bloom.

The birds are always singing And everything's in time; That there is no fear of seasons That every day is spring (Except one day in autumn The double crops to gather in).

S'pose its foolish to wish you'd stay. Maybe worse, I guess it's wrong. Since we all, without exception, Would like to go
